KHSC Scholarship Applications must be mailed to KHSC Scholarship Fund, 1018 Town Drive, Wilder KY 41076, and must be postmarked NO LATER THAN the deadline date. Scholarship Applications mailed or hand delivered to any other KHSC agent, official, coach or board member will not be processed. If you do not receive an e-mail confirmation within ten days of mailing form, please contact nikki@kingshammer.com. Scholarships postmarked after the due date will not be considered.

You must re-apply for a scholarship each season; old applications will not be reconsidered in later seasons.

The KHSC Scholarship Committee will make decisions on a subjective basis. While a player's need (as demonstrated by the Application) will be given the highest consideration, other factors may be considered including, but not limited to:

1. Years with Kings Hammer
2. The applicant's attendance record and attitude (as reported by the coach)
3. Applicant's other activities which demonstrate volunteerism within the KHSC Organization
4. Parent or player code of conduct violations

Deposit must be paid for an application to be considered. Scholarship money is only good towards club fees. Uniform fees and personal travel to tournaments and games is not be covered by scholarship money.

The maximum scholarship award will be 50% of club fees for the season. All applicants will be notified of the decision of the Scholarship Committee within two weeks of the application due date. Notification will come via e-mail.

I hereby certify that I have read both sides of the Scholarship Application form and that the information I provided is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I also agree to work my required 10 volunteer hours at the above mentioned events or at any event as specified by the volunteer coordinator. Failure to meet my hours will result in my child not being eligible for future scholarships. This is over and above assisting with individual team needs.
